(2) On the occurrence of any vacancy referred to in sub-section (1), the President shall forthwith report the fact of such vacancy to the Local Government.

10. Amendment of Section 10 of the Ben. Act. VI of 1914 as made through the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1989 :

Filling of casual vacancies

(1) When the Office of a member of the Council becomes vacant by his resignation or death or under sub-section(2) of section 4 or sub-section (1) of section 9: -

(a) if such member was nominated under clause (a) of sub-section 1 of sec.4, a new member shall be nominated by the state Government within two months of the vacancy;

(b) if such member was elected under clause (b), clause (c) or clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 4, a new member shall be elected within two months of the vacancy in the manner provided in such clause;

(c) if such member was elected under clause (h) of sub-section 1 of section 4, the candidate who secured at the election the maximum number of votes among candidates excepting all members, who were elected under that clause shall, if not disqualified under section 6, be deemed to have been elected in the place of such member: -

Provided that :

(i) Where there are several candidates who secured such maximum number of votes, such one of them, as may be selected by lot in accordance with rule made in this behalf under Section 33, shall be deemed to have been elected;

(ii) Deleted.

(iii) If the candidate, who is elected or would otherwise have been deemed to have been elected under this clause, is dead or refuses to serve as a member of the Council, the candidate who secured the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected in the vacancy caused by such death or refusal.

Explanation :

A candidate elected under the clause shall be deemed to have vacated his seat if he refuses in writing to serve as a member of this Council.

- (2) The term of Office of a member, nominated or elected or deemed to have been elected, under sub-section (1), shall commence on such date as may be notified in this behalf by the State Government in the Official Gazette and shall continue for so long as the member whose place he fills, would have been entitled to hold office if the vacancy had not occurred.
- (3) No act of the Council or any Committee of the Council or of their members shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only that the number of members in the Council at the time of the performance of such act was less than the number provided by section 4.

Term of office
of members

11. (1) The term of office of a member of the Council nominated or elected under section 4 or nominated under section 5 shall commence on such date as may be notified in this behalf by the State Government in the Official Gazette; and
- (2) Subject to the provisions of section 9 and section 10, the terms of office of members shall be five years plus such period as may elapse between the period of five years aforementioned and the date notified in the notification under sub-section (1) next following such period of five years.
- (3) Any member shall if not disqualified for any of the reasons mentioned in section 6, be eligible for re-election or re-nomination at the end of his term of office.

President

- 11A. (1) The members of the Council shall at their first meeting after the notification referred to in sub-section (1) of section 11, recommend in such manner as may be prescribed by rule made in this behalf under section 33, the names of three persons for the purpose of this sub-section; and the State Government shall nominate one of such persons to be the President of the Council.
- (2) The President, if he is not already a member, shall be a member of the Council in addition to the members referred to in Section 4.
- (3) The State Government shall publish the name of the President in the Official Gazette and his term of office shall commence from the date of such publication.
- (4) The President shall hold Office for a period of five years, or until his successor is nominated, whichever is longer.
- (5) The President: -
- (a) may at any time by writing under his hand addressed to the State Government resign his Office,
- (b) shall be deemed to vacate his office in all cases where a member is deemed to vacate his Office under sub-section (1) of section 9.

(6) As often as the Office of the President becomes vacant by his death or under sub-sec (5), the Council shall at a special meeting to be called for the purpose within one month of the vacancy recommend in such manner as may be prescribed by rule made in this behalf under sec.33, the names of three persons for the purpose of this sub-sec; and the State Govt. shall nominate another President from such persons.

(7) A President nominated to fill a vacancy, shall hold office for so long as the President whose place he fills would have been entitled to hold office if the vacancy had not occurred.

(8) The President shall perform such functions as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf under section 33.

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections for a period of five years from the 15th day of January 1955 and for such additional period as may expire until the nomination of a President under sub-section (1), the State Government shall appoint, as often as may be necessary, such person, as it thinks fit, to be the President. The provisions of sub-sections (2),(3),(4), (5),(7) and (8) shall apply to such President.

Vice President

11B. (1) The members of the Council shall at their first meeting after the notification referred to in sub- section (1) of section 11, elect among themselves a Vice-President in such manner as may be prescribed by rule made in this behalf under section 33.

(2) A Vice-President -

(a) may at any time by writing under his hand addressed to the State Government resign his Office.

(b) Shall be deemed to vacate his office if he ceases to be a member of the Council.

(3) As often as the Office of the Vice-President becomes vacant by his death or under sub-section (2), the Council shall elect another member to be the Vice- President, in the manner prescribed by rule made in this behalf under section 33.

(4) The Vice-President shall perform such functions as may be prescribed by rule in this behalf under section 33.

Executive Committee

11C. (1) The members of the Council shall constitute among themselves an Executive Committee to perform such functions as may be delegated to it by the Council.

(2) The Executive Committee shall consist of the President and the Vice-President, ex-officio, and five other members elected by the Council.

(3) The President and the Vice-President of the Council shall be the President and the Vice-President, respectively, of the Executive Committee.

- (4) The term of office of an elected member of the Executive Committee shall be two years from the date of his election but, subject to his being a member of the Council, he shall be eligible for re- election to the Executive Committee.
- (5) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Executive Committee unless a quorum of three members be present.
- (6) The Council may make regulations under sub-section (3) of section 33 for the conduct of business of the Executive Committee.

Meetings

- 12. (1) The Council shall make regulations to regulate –
- (a) the times and places at which their meetings shall be held;
 - (b) the issue of notices convening such meetings;
 - (c) the conduct of business thereat, and
 - (d) the appointment, powers and duties and procedure of special committees (including special committees appointed under sub-section (2) of section 19);

Provided that –

- (i) No business shall be transacted at any meeting (of the Council) unless a quorum of 7 members be present; and
 - (ii) save as provided in section 17 and section 25, all questions arising at any meeting (of the Council) shall be decided by the votes of the majority of the members present and voting, or, in case of an equality of votes, by the casting vote of the President, or in his absence, of the member presiding at the meeting.
- (2) Until such time as the regulations referred to in sub-sec.(1) have come into operation, it shall be lawful for the President to summon a meeting at such time and place as to him shall seem expedient, by letter addressed to each member.

Payment of fees and travelling expenses to members

- 13. There shall be paid to the members of the Council such fees for attendance at meeting of the Council or of special committees or of the Executive Committee and such reasonable travelling expenses for such attendance and for journeys undertaken in the discharge of their duties under this Act, as may from time to time, be allowed by the Council and approved by the Local Government.
